

Title: Everybody Was So Young

Author: Amanda Vail

A Non-fiction biography of Gerald and Sara Murphy - France 1920's.
Hemingway and Fitzgerald's Paris.

Art Objects:

Hemingway and Fitzgerald's Paris during the 1920's

1. The Scholar's Playthings 1917 Giorgio de Chirico (if up, this is in the style of Gerald Murphy).

1. Villa America by Gerald Murphy gallery 361

2. Portrait of the Painter -Egon Shiele 1918

3. Le Petit Dejaeuner Fernand Leger 1921

4. Woman in an Armchair 1927, or other works by Pablo Picasso on view

5. Yellow Bird Brancusi 1912

6. Little Servant Girl Amedeo Modigliani 1916

7. Matador Jacque Lipschitz 1914

8. Study for Improvisation V, W. Kandinsky 1910

9. The Three Bathers 1907 or White Plumes 1919, Henri Matisse

Others to consider - artists who lived in Paris at this time:

Marc Chagall, Soutine, Max Ernst

NOTES: I look forward to this tour because it gives us another reason to access MIA's "Modern Art" (although it's 89 years old)! And people still can't wrap their heads around it.

GUIDE:

Antra Pakalns

GURKIS01@aol.com